DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 2. Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11-15 and 17-18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dejaeger et al (hereinafter, "Dejaeger", US 6,456,981).

As per claims 1, 7 and 13, Dejaeger discloses a method, computer program product and system for alerting a user to a promotional offer for a product, comprising the steps of:

- (a) receiving a representation of a bar code from a user, wherein the representation of the bar code is associated with a product (col. 3, lines 51-65 and col. 4, lines 18-29).
- (b) generating a relationship between the user and the product (col. 6, lines 47-53 and col. 8, lines 30-45);
- (c) storing the relationship between the user and the product in a database (col. 6, lines 47-53 and col. 8, lines 30-45);
- (d) performing a search for matching a promotional offer to the product (col. 7, lines 20-43 and col. 8, lines 52-60); and
- (e) outputting the promotional offer to the user based on the relationship of the user with the product (col. 8, lines 52-60).

Application/Control Number: 09/784,296

Art Unit: 2157

However, Dejaeger does not explicitly disclose:

As per claims 2, 8 and 14, Dejaeger discloses:

• wherein the promotional offer is selected based on criteria input by the user (col. 7, lines 20-43 and col. 8, lines 52-60).

As per claims 3, 9 and 15, Dejaeger discloses wherein the criteria is selected from a group consisting of:

• a price of the product, a location of the vendor of the product, a date, a time, wrapping of the product, shipment of the product and ability to pick up the product (col. 5, lines 61-67, col. 6, lines 1-9 and lines 19-43).

As per claims 5, 11 and 17, Dejaeger discloses:

• wherein the content relating to the product is also output to the user (col. 9, lines 33-41 and col. 10, lines 26-35).

As per claims 6, 12 and 18, Dejaeger discloses:

- wherein the promotion offer is output to a client device of the user (col. 8, lines 52-60 and col. 10, lines 39); and
- wherein the client device is selected from the group consisting of: a personal computer, a scanner, a portable computing device, a telephone, a pager and a facsimile machine (col. 3, lines 51-65 and col. 4, lines 18-29).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Application/Control Number: 09/784,296 Page 4

Art Unit: 2157

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 4, 10 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dejaeger in view of Hudetz et al (hereinafter, "Hudetz", 5,978,773).

As per claims 4, 10 and 16, Dejaeger discloses the invention substantially as claims discussed above.

However, Dejaeger does not explicitly disclose:

 wherein the promotional offer is output to a web page of a network data site, wherein the user accesses the web page for viewing the promotional offer.

In an analogous art, Hudetz discloses a system and method for using identification codes found on ordinary articles of commerce to access remote computers on a network including:

• wherein the promotional offer is output to a web page of a network data site, wherein the user accesses the web page for viewing the promotional offer (col. 7, lines 17-28, lines 60-67, col. 8, lines 1-10 and lines 47-63).

Given the teaching of Hudetz, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate or implement a vendor's URL link to a product in order retrieve information about the product in a timely and efficient manner.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
